VALE DO LOBO
ALGARVE

THE MOST POPULAR NATIONAL EVENT FOR CLUB GOLFERS

In 2011 the Volvo Matchplay Championship will be celebrating its 16th year.

Grand Finalists win a six day holiday at Vale do Lobo, Algarve 14th –19th January 2012 including return flights, 5 nights luxury accommodation, hire car, practice round and four competitive rounds on the spectacular Ocean Course and the magnificent Royal Course.

The format is Better-Ball or Individual matchplay with a maximum of 4 rounds before the Regional Finals. Matches are played regionally with minimum traveling and on a mutually convenient date and time with up to five weeks to play each round.

Complimentary or reduced green fees. Courtesy of the course is often granted, but any green fees payable will be charged at the member's guest rate and shared between competitors.

Up to 8 Regional Finals staged at top class courses in October. Format at Regional and Grand Finals is stableford points.

Who can enter? Current golf clubs members who have an ACTIVE CONGU handicap.

In matchplay stages stroke allowance is ¾ difference in Better-Ball and full in Individual.

Handicap limits are 24 for men and 30 for ladies. Golfers with higher handicaps may enter and play off these limits. Better–Ball teams may be mixed and players may come from different clubs.

Golfers under 18 yrs may compete in the Better-Ball competition but MUST be partnered by an adult. Competitors in the Individual MUST be 18 yrs and over.
